1. GETTING STARTED

This User Manual will help you to familiarize yourself with the 9-Hole Stroke Play application. The dialog boxes and controls in this User Manual may appear different from the dialog boxes and controls that appear on your computer screen.

Stroke play, also known as medal play, is a form of competition based on the cumulative number of strokes taken, either over one round or several. This application is for 9-hole rounds. The user selects either front nine or back nine.

The 9-Hole Stroke Play application is used to set up and run 9-hole stroke play events, including and not limited to:

- Individual (up to 15 flights) low gross and low net.
- Callaway handicapping for 9 holes.
- Individual Stableford (up to 15 flights) (gross, net and quota).
- Team Stableford (up to 15 flights) (gross, net and quota).
- Select skins game for all of above.
- Select players playing skins.

This User Manual describes all the steps necessary to complete a 9-hole stroke play event.

Please take a moment to familiarize yourself with the text conventions, terms, and controls used in this User Manual.

1.2 Terms

You can use either a single-button mouse or a multiple-button mouse with this application.

If you have a multiple-button mouse, the left mouse button is the primary mouse button, unless you have configured it differently. Any procedure that requires you to click the secondary button will refer to it as "the right mouse button."

If you have a single-button mouse, pressing the Ctrl key while clicking the mouse button is the same as clicking the right mouse button.

This User Manual uses the following terms.

In Windows, the terms choose and select have different and specific meanings. Selecting an item usually means mark it with the selection cursor, which can appear as a highlight, a dotted rectangle, or both. You also select check boxes and option buttons in dialogs. Selecting alone does not initiate an action.

You choose an item to carry out an action. For example, choosing a command button or menu item might open a dialog or carry out a command. You often need to select an item before you can choose it.

1.3 Controls

You can use a combination of mouse and keyboard techniques. For example, you could click an item to select it, and then press Enter from the keyboard to choose it. When a procedure in this User Manual says to choose an item, generally you can use whichever method you prefer.

This section gives basic information about controls and their functions. Throughout this Guide, the control name will be in bold type. For example, select OK or select Courses Table check box. The controls found in the 9-Hole Stroke Play application are similar as shown below.

1.3.1 Button or Command Button

You choose a command button to initiate an action, such as carrying out or cancelling a command. Common command buttons are OK and Cancel. They are often located along the bottom or on the right side of the dialog.

A command button, followed by an ellipsis (...) or a double greater-than sign (>>) opens another dialog box.

Unavailable command buttons are dimmed. The currently selected button has a darker border than other buttons. You can choose the currently selected button, simply by pressing the Enter key.

To choose a command button, click the command button. Or press the Tab key until the button you want is selected, and then press the Enter key.

1.3.2 Text Box

mouse button, then release the mouse button when the desired value is displayed. Likewise, repeat the latter by clicking the down (or left) arrow to decrement the value. If a flashing vertical bar appears when you drag the mouse cursor over the area left of the up (or right) and down (or left) arrows, the control contains a text box. If the area is highlighted or selected you can change the value or list with the up and down (or left and right) arrow keys from the keyboard.
